

Khomeini and his father.

Picture was taken from the book "وارث ملک کیان" (Varese Molke Kian) by "دکتر خواجه نصیری" (Dr. Khajeh Naseeri).

Picture was provided to the author by "حاجی پسندیده" (Hdji Passandeedeh), Khomeini's older brother. This explains why Khomeini did not have any feeling or respect for Iranian people and Iranian culture. Who knew this innocent looking child would become one of the biggest killers of this century!!

SIKHISM, SEE tikə ulm, is one of the religions of India. Its believers call themselves Sikhs, which means disciples. They follow the teachings of 10 gurus (teachers of religion). The Sikh holy book, called the Adi Granth, includes the teachings of these gurus. About 10 million Sikhs live in India.

The first Sikh guru, Nanak, began to preach about 1500. He tried to unite Hinduism and Islam, two of India's major religions, by adopting beliefs from both faiths. For example, Sikhism includes the Islamic belief in one God. In addition, Sikhism, like Islam, forbids the worship of religious images. Sikhism also adopted the Hindu belief in reincarnation. According to this belief, after the body dies, the soul is reborn in the body of an animal or of another human being. Sikhism also includes the Hindu doctrine of karma. This doctrine states that a person's actions determine what

The Symbol of Sikhism consists of two curved swords, a double-edged dagger, and a discus. The symbol stands for bravery and spiritual power.

Doesn't that look familiar??????
